

Art-Reach Access Basics

Scholarship Details

Description

Arts and cultural professionals local to Art-Reach's service area are eligible to attend the full Art-Reach Access Basics series free of charge! A limited number of scholarships are available to help break down the cost barrier to accessibility education.

We are also excited to share that Art-Reach will be able to offer a limited number of scholarships to the 2026 Leadership Exchange in Arts and Disability (LEAD) Conference, which will be held in Philadelphia in August 2026! These scholarships will cover the cost of registration for the main 3-day conference. We will share more details about the application process and eligibility in Spring 2026. More information about the LEAD Conference can be found at this link.

We encourage you learn the “Basics” with Art-Reach to help prepare you for LEAD 2026!

These professional development scholarships are made possible with support from the William Penn Foundation.

Eligibility for Art-Reach Access Basics Scholarships

To be eligible for a scholarship, you must be:

- An arts and cultural professional, student, human service agency staff, or disability advocate
- Local to Art-Reach’s service area of Greater Philadelphia, Brandywine Valley, and Southern New Jersey

We kindly ask arts organizations and human service agencies to limit their scholarship registrations to 3 per organization.

Scholarships are available only for full series registrations, and will not apply to “a la carte” session registrations.

If you have questions about your eligibility, please contact Blue Park, Education Manager, at blue@art-reach.org.
